The Cultured Canine - Divine K-9's pick for little dogs and small breed puppies

Our training practice is limited to private, in-home sessions with a focus on small breed puppies and little adult dogs. Board and train services are available for our pint-sized clients, too (including housetraining). For excellent group classes, puppy nursery (vital for all puppies) and cases involving aggression, we work cooperatively with Divine K-9 to help our clients benefit from everything that our combined services have to offer.

Diane Podolsky, owner of The Cultured Canine, is a valedictorian graduate of the prestigious San Francisco SPCA Academy for Dog Trainers founded by Jean Donaldson. Like Jorge of Divine K-9, she is a Certified Pet Dog Trainer (CPDT). Diane is certified in pet first aid by the Red Cross. Her appearances in the the press include publications such as The Pet Gazette, In Town Magazine, New York Tails, Dogs and Kids Magazine, Westchester Life and Health and Pet People. And, of course, Diane is a proud member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers. Diane's prior career in technical support and adult education informs her dog training work, helping her to work effectively with the human member of the training team .

Services include:

Vacation spot: Luxury boarding for little dogs.

At Home Training for small and toy breeds.

Board & Train services for small and toy breeds.

Good to the Bone - Divine K-9's pick for Queens & Brooklyn boroughs of New York City

Good to the Bone Dog Training offers both private, in-home training sessions in Queens, Manhattan, and Brooklyn, as well as group classes, offered in the Murray Hill area of Manhattan. We specialize in on-leash reactivity, such as lunging and barking, because we believe taking the dog for a walk should be an enjoyable experience for both dog and owner. Utilizing only humane, reward-based training methods, we also offer training packages and consultations for a variety of issues, such as puppy training, polite leash-walking, dog meets baby, impulse control, basic obedience, and more.

Wendy DeSarno, owner of Good to the Bone Dog Training, is a professional member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers (APDT). Her education include an honors Certificate in Training and Counseling (CTC) from the world-renowned San Francisco SPCA Academy for Dog Trainers, under the direction of Jean Donaldson. This is an intensive program where a class of only ten students trains with the industry's best dog trainers. Wendy has also worked with the behavior staff of the ASPCA, training and rehabilitating shelter dogs to make them more adoptable. Most recently, Wendy obtained her Certification as a Pet Dog Trainer (CPDT) from the nationally recognized Certification Council for Dog Trainers.

The Yogascape and Spa

The Yogascape and Spa is a haven for renewal located in Carmel, New York, with a full schedule of yoga classes, holistic nutritional counselors, and a massage therapist on site. It is a community-oriented space where ancient practices and teachings are shared, and conscious living and physical and emotional well-being is fostered. Amy Pearce-Hayden, ERYT, director, leads through her own experience and by example, and has created a place where seekers can be at ease as they gather to both engage in and surrender to their own practice, as well as support others on the path. Through association at TheYogaScape, one cannot help but be a part of the overall movement of raising consciousness.

With classes of all styles, and a wide array of teachers, there is a place for everyone at the Yogascape, where the offerings are universal, but the approach is individual.
